

CALIFORNIA ENERGY COMMISSION
Fuel Delivery Temperature Study
Staff Workshop Agenda

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 2008
10 a.m. Pacific Standard Time
CALIFORNIA ENERGY COMMISSION
1516 Ninth Street
Sacramento, California 95814
First Floor, Hearing Room A

10:00 a.m. Opening Remarks – Gordon Schremp, California Energy Commission's AB 868 Project Manager (Workshop Facilitator)

- Housekeeping
- Introductions
- Procedures for questions – WebEx & audience
- Today's format

10:20 a.m. AB 868 – California Energy Commission Fuel Delivery Temperature Study Update – Gordon Schremp

- Brief overview
- Schedule of future meetings
- Primary objectives – study & today's workshop

11:00 a.m. California Department of Food and Agriculture Division of Measurement Standards (DMS) Fuel Temperature Survey Update – DMS representative and Gordon Schremp

- Overview
- Progress to date
- Schedule of additional temperature sampling

11:45 a.m. Lunch Break

12:45 p.m. Temperature Compensation Benefits - Panel Discussion

- Assumptions
 - Physics
 - Adjustment
- Methodology for measuring benefits
- Data collection
- Outstanding issues

1:45 p.m. Temperature Compensation Costs - Panel Discussion

- Material and labor costs
 - Data collection
- Costs associated with a new reference temperature
- Methodology for measuring costs

- Outstanding issues

2:30 p.m. Agency Impacts - Panel Discussion

- County sealers material and labor
- DMS regulatory development
- Outstanding issues

3:00 p.m. Phase-in Schedule - Panel Discussion

- Discrete steps or phases
- Date certain deadline
- Phased in over time
- Pros and cons

3:30 p.m. Other Issues Associated with Study - Panel Discussion

- Disproportionate economic impact
- Potential funding sources
- Labeling and consumer outreach
- Potential environmental benefits – early leak detection
- Renewable fuels and the proposed Low Carbon Fuel Standard

4:45 p.m. Next Steps

- June 5, 2008 Workshop

Additional Questions and Resources